ANIMAL EVACUATIONS

DON'T FORGET ABOUT YOUR PETS AND LIVESTOCK

Our pets and livestock rely on us for their safety, especially during emergencies. By taking time to plan ahead, you can keep them safe and comfortable during a stressful situation.

PETS

Your Pet's Bag Should Include:

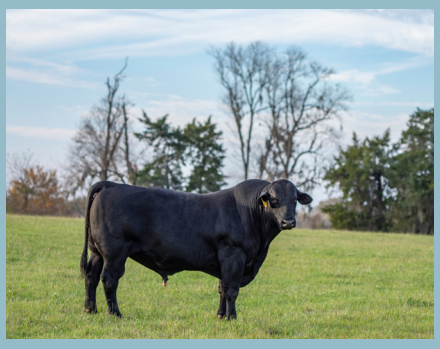

- Three-day supply of pet food and drinking water
- Secure collar with an up-to-date ID tag that includes the owner's name and phone number
- Leash, carrier, or secured cage for safe transport
- Litter box, litter, poop bags, and basic bedding supplies
- Current photos of your pet (printed or saved on your phone)
- Medications and basic medical supplies

Pet Evacuation Reminders:

- Plan ahead so you know where your pets will go and arrange a safe place for them to stay.
- Ask a neighbor to check on or transport your pets if you're not home.
- Keep in mind that pets may not be allowed in emergency shelters.

LIVESTOCK

Your Livestock Bag Should Include:

- Three-day supply of hay, feed, and water
- Current list of all animals, including location and records of feeding, vaccinations, and photos
- Basic first aid kit
- Supplies for temporary identification, such as plastic neckbands
- Handling equipment, buckets, tools, and sanitation supplies

Livestock Evacuation Reminders:

- Contact your local fairgrounds, equestrian centers, friends, etc. about their policies and ability to take livestock temporarily in an emergency.
- Learn evacuation routes well in advance and arrange safe transportation suitable for your livestock.
- Bring all necessary supplies or confirm they are available at the evacuation site.
- Evacuate livestock as soon as an evacuation warning or order is issued.
